

AAPP Fall Symposium
Atlanta, GA
Thursday November 2, 2017

Thursday Evening Workshops

7:00 pm – 9:00 pm – 2.0 CECH

Practice Management of the Pediatric Patient

Custom and OTC Orthotics as a Viable Treatment Option for Your Pediatric Patient

Tracey Toback, DPM

Description coming soon.

The How To's of Working Up the Pediatric Patient

Louis DeCaro, DPM

Description coming soon.

You Need to Grow Your Pediatric Practice and Here's How To Do It

Nick Pagano, DPM

Description coming soon.

7:00 pm – 9:00 pm – 2.0 CECH

Innovative In-Office Strategies and Protocols for Treating Foot and Venous Stasis Ulcers:
Maximizing the Best Outcomes with the Latest in Graduated Compression Garments and Topical
Wound Care Products

Jonathan Moore, DPM, MS

Goals/Objectives:

- The audience will Learn the Latest in In-Office Wound Care Topical Products including Collagens, Foams and Graduated Compression Garments
- The audience will Learn about Why Graduated Compression Garments Remain one of most critical yet often neglected treatment toward the healing and preventing Venous Stasis Ulcers
- The audience will Learn the latest in-office Protocols to maximize outcomes and compliance with documentation strategies along with coding education.
- The audience will Learn the latest in patient management strategies to help improve outcomes, customer satisfaction and practice growth.